The village of Buckland Brewer is surrounded by miles of unspoilt countryside yet remains within easy access of the North Devon coastline and local beaches. The Port and Market town of Bideford is situated some 6 miles away to the south and Great Torrington is being of a similar distance to the east.

The village itself is supported by a charming thatched pub, community shop and social centre, village church and junior/infants school.

SERVICES: Mains water, electricity and drainage. Gas fired central heating. Upvc double glazed windows.

COUNCIL TAX BAND: B

TENURE: Freehold

DIRECTIONS TO FIND: From Bideford proceed southwards out of town as towards Torrington. After approximately 1 mile take the turning right (by the former chapel) signposted to Buckland Brewer, Bradworthy etc. Follow this route whereupon after a sharp left-hand bend take the turning on the left as signposted to Buckland Brewer. Upon reaching the village continue past the church (on the left-hand side) and then take the right-hand turning opposite the old telephone box signposted to the village shop and the property will be found tucked away on the right-hand side behind 'The Old Village Store'.
