Located in the popular village of Edenthorpe, we are now marketing this three bedroom, semi-detached home which would make the perfect place to get yourself on to the property ladder or even a step up the ladder? The property is certainly spacious and offers more than ample living arrangements on the ground floor as well as three good sized bedrooms upstairs. Outside you will find off road parking as well as gardens to the front and rear. The location is also a popular choice as there are some decent parks and walks nearby, plenty of shops, schools and general amenities, but also Edenthorpe is located perfectly for commuting links both in and out of town. If you are interested then please call the office today to book in
