SITUATION

Morcombelake is a popular village approximately mid-way between Chideock and Charmouth and is famous for the wonderful National Trust Golden Cap estate and access to the beautiful Jurassic Coast. The estate embraces most of the coastal land between Charmouth and Seatown with access to many magnificent walks including Langdon Hill and Golden Cap. Very nearby is also Hardown Hill which again belongs to the National Trust, offering fabulous 360 degree views. The immediate area is designated one of Outstanding Natural Beauty and the Jurassic Coast is designated as a World Heritage Site. Morcombelake village offers excellent amenities including Felicity's Farm Shop, church and a very active village hall, together with regular bus services.

The village of Chideock and Charmouth are both within only a few miles, again both located on the World Heritage Coast (the latter with a Blue Flag world-famous fossil and bathing beach). The thriving market town of Bridport and the historic coastal resort of Lyme Regis are both within about 5 miles. There is a mainline railway service to London and the West Country from Axminster, about 8 miles. Exeter, with its international airport and access to the M5 is within about 35 miles.

DESCRIPTION

Bullenside is a very attractive and well presented individual detached house understood to have been built in the late 1940s and extended in 2000. It is of traditional cavity construction with colour washed rendered elevations. The accommodation is well presented and principally faces west with all the main rooms taking advantage of the country and sea views. There is the benefit of an oil fired central heating system with Aga Rangemaster and UPVC sealed unit windows and doors. The layout is very flexible with a large downstairs bedroom and ensuite facilities; ideal for a dependent relative, someone less able or bed and breakfast use. The large sitting room is on the first floor to take in the views and features Juliet balconies.

The house is set well back and secluded enjoying extensive parking with potential for garaging; attractive formal gardens and a large paddock which leads to the meadow with livestock fencing. From the rear boundary there are stunning panoramic views over Morcombelake to the Golden Cap Estate taking in Golden Cap and Langdon Hill, the sea and on a clear day to Portland.

Viewing of this property is strongly recommended by the sole agents.
