A charming three-bedroom home forming part of an attractive courtyard development, converted from traditional barns in 1993. The property retains a wealth of character features, including exposed beams and impressive high ceilings, creating a light and welcoming atmosphere throughout.

A wide front door opens into a spacious entrance hall. To one side is the generous dual-aspect sitting room, featuring a wood-burning stove and double doors opening onto the garden. On the opposite side lies an equally spacious kitchen/breakfast room, also with double doors leading out to the garden. Both rooms are filled with natural light and enjoy delightful views across the rear garden and flagstone terrace. A cloakroom completes the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, a spacious galleried landing leads to the bedrooms. The principal bedroom enjoys a distinctive pentagon-shaped window framing views across the surrounding fields, together with fitted storage and an en-suite shower room. Bedroom two is a well-proportioned double overlooking the rear garden and countryside beyond, while bedroom three is positioned to the front. A family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms.

Outside, the rear garden is mainly laid to lawn and bordered with mature plants and shrubs, with a beautiful climbing rose adorning the rear elevation of the house. The garden enjoys wide, open views across the fields beyond and includes a gate providing rear access to a pathway that leads around the side of the properties to the front.

To the front, the property overlooks the pretty front garden and a flagstone path leading to the entrance. A large double garage is situated on the opposite side of the courtyard, together with an allocated parking space on the driveway.
