SITUATION

The property is located on the edge of the beautiful village of Clyst

Hydon, which has a friendly community, primary school, popular sports & cricket club, swimming pool, village hall, church and the popular, community run Five Bells Inn. A more extensive range of facilities can be found in the country town of Cullompton (4 miles) with an M5 Junction facilitating rapid commuting south to the university and cathedral city of Exeter and north to the county town of Taunton. There is a good range of private schooling in Exeter, Wellington and Taunton. The nearby Killerton Estate, run by the National Trust, is an attractive amenity, whilst Ashclyst Forest (NT) is also a short distance providing miles of excellent walking, cycling and riding.

DIRECTIONS

From the old A30 at Fairmile, turn right signposted Talaton. Proceed through the village of Talaton towards Clyst Hydon and after 3 miles the road will bear to the right as you enter the village with the Clyst Hydon sign. Follow the road for approx 0.5 miles, as the road bears to the right take the left hand turn down the drive with the Hethenhill Farm sign and Public Footpath post. Follow the lane and England signs to the end where the cottage can be found.
