SITUATION

Greenhayes is situated in an accessible location just off the A373 on Hembury Hill, the bungalow is well located with good access to Honiton and Cullompton. The picturesque villages of Payhembury and Broadhembury both have beautiful thatched cottages each with a Public House, old Parish Church, primary school and village Stores. Nearby are extensive bridleways and paths leading deeper into the Blackdown Hills for walkers and horse riders in this National Landscape (formerly known as Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty AONB).

Honiton, to the south east, and Cullompton, to the north west, are equidistant, with a good range of amenities and provide access to the A30 and M5. Exeter is an easy commute and offers a wide range of cultural and educational facilities. There are regular rail services to London Waterloo from Honiton and Exeter International Airport provides a number of domestic and international flights.

DIRECTIONS

From Honiton High Street take the A373 (Dowell Street) towards Awliscombe & Cullompton. Follow the road for approx. 3.5 miles passing through Awliscombe, climbing up the hill to the top of Hembury Fort, as you pass through the tree line you will pass the crossroads, then take the next right. Follow the lane for approx. 0.5 miles and Greenhayes can be found on the left handside.
