

120, Hurdsfield Road, Macclesfield, Cheshire SK10 2PY

A beautifully presented, garden-fronted two-bedroom cottage, ideally positioned within easy reach of Macclesfield town centre, the railway station, and an excellent range of local amenities. Recently renovated throughout to an exceptional standard, this charming home offers stylish, turnkey accommodation that effortlessly blends period character with modern comforts.

The well-appointed accommodation comprises an entrance porch, a bright lounge and a spacious open-plan dining kitchen to the ground floor. To the first floor, there are two generously sized bedrooms and a contemporary bathroom fitted with modern fixtures and finishes. The property also benefits from gas-fired central heating and uPVC double glazing throughout.

Externally, the cottage is set back behind an attractive front garden, creating an appealing first impression. To the rear, a beautifully landscaped, low-maintenance garden provides the perfect setting for outdoor dining, entertaining, or simply relaxing. A useful brick-built outhouse offers valuable additional storage space.

This is a superb opportunity to acquire a fully renovated and move-in-ready home in a highly desirable and convenient location.

Macclesfield is a thriving business centre and market town with excellent local amenities and a choice of modern leisure and sports facilities. The town is situated on the Cheshire Plain, at the edge of the Peak District National Park with its picturesque beauty and extensive walks.

Residents of Macclesfield have access to good transport links including national motorways, major roads and train networks, including the West Coast Line direct to London. Manchester International Airport is only thirteen miles away by road. Greater Manchester is within comfortable daily travelling distance and there are regular bus services to neighbouring towns.

Proceed out of Macclesfield along Hurdsfield Road (B5470) signposted Whaley Bridge and the property can be found on the left hand side.
