Location

Harpley is a charming small rural village with a mixture of period cottages and farmhouses interspersed with modern properties. The village has the benefit of a village inn and restaurant, The Rose and Crown, a pretty parish church, primary school, village hall and is within the catchment area of the well respected Litcham School for children aged 4-16. The nearby village of Great Massingham has a village stores and Post Office, modern doctors surgery, celebrated pub, The Dabbling Duck, and other recreational facilities. The village is well placed for King's Lynn, Fakenham and the north Norfolk coast, together with numerous stately homes including The Royal Sandringham Estate and other places of interest.
