DESCRIPTION

Dating back to around 1740's and unusually not listed, Myrtle Cottage retains a number of attractive period features including an original bread oven and a wood-burning stove set within the sitting room, creating a warm and welcoming principal reception space. The well-presented accommodation includes two bedrooms, while outside the beautifully landscaped cottage gardens offer a tranquil retreat with ornamental ponds, mature planting and a versatile detached garden room ideal as a home office, studio or hobbies space. Complete with off-road parking.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation is well arranged and comprises a good sized reception room with wood burner and bread oven, a kitchen fitted with bespoke units and providing space for a dining table, together with a useful utility room and cloakroom on the ground floor. On the first floor are two double bedrooms, both enjoying views over the gardens and surrounding village setting. A family bathroom finishes off the accommodation on this floor.

GARDEN

A particular feature of the property is the attractive outside space. A covered porch provides a sheltered seating area and leads to the beautifully established gardens, which have been thoughtfully landscaped with meandering pathways, mature planting and two ornamental ponds. The detached garden room, complete with a wood-burning stove, offers excellent flexibility and could be utilised as a home office, studio, hobbies room or occasional guest accommodation, subject to individual requirements.
