THE PROPERTY

Sold (stc) by Adams

A sympathetically and stylishly renovated two double bedroom period cottage with a range of character features, discretely tucked away off Bull Lane in central Winchcombe.

Available with no onward chain and currently run as a successful holiday let, this Grade II Listed property features a refitted kitchen and dining room with integrated appliances and flagstone flooring, a spacious sitting room with stripped wood flooring, exposed timbers and stonework and a woodburner, a ground floor bathroom with a roll top freestanding bath and wood panelling and two first floor double bedrooms, one of which has an ensuite shower room.

There is a small gravelled courtyard garden which provides a low-maintenance outside space for seating and dining in the better weather.

Combining traditional charm with a spacious interior, this delightful home is ideally situated to enjoy the unique shops, eateries, and countryside walks that Winchcombe is renowned for.

SITUATION

Winchcombe is an ancient Saxon town, beautifully situated on the famous Cotswold Way, just 7 miles north-east of Cheltenham. This location offers excellent connectivity (approx. 2hrs to London Paddington by train from Cheltenham), with Broadway 8 miles and Gloucester 16 miles away.

Nestled within the Cotswolds National Landscape (formerly the AONB), the town features many listed properties. The thriving community provides an excellent range of amenities, including independent shops, supermarkets, pubs, restaurants, doctors/dental surgeries, and a library, plus a primary and a secondary school.

A stone's throw from the town centre lies the magnificent Sudeley Castle, a historic Tudor jewel and the final resting place of Queen Katherine Parr. Residents and visitors alike enjoy a year-round calendar of prestigious events ranging from the magical 'Spectacle of Light' in winter to summer outdoor theatre and artisan festivals.

The town's cultural and recreational life is further enhanced by the Isbourne Arts Centre, a vibrant venue for music, drama, and community events; and the Winchcombe Park, which offers a Multi-Use Games Area (MUGA), a skate park, an outdoor gym, and picnic areas, strengthening the local community spirit.
