THE PROPERTY

Sold (stc) by Adams Situated on the edge of a select development within 1/4 of a mile of Winchcombe's historic centre, this impressive five-bedroom detached home perfectly balances modern comfort with a picturesque Cotswold setting. The ground floor features a bright, spacious sitting room that flows seamlessly into the adjoining dining room, alongside a refitted kitchen/breakfast room and a separate utility room and cloakroom.

The first floor offers five well-proportioned bedrooms, including a principal suite with a private ensuite, complemented by a further full family bathroom. Practicality is assured with an integral double garage and an expansive driveway providing parking for several vehicles.

The outdoor space is a particular highlight; a lovely leafy outlook provides a sense of tranquility, while the property benefits from a garden cabin/workshop. Beyond the main garden wall lies an additional area that extends down to the infant River Isbourne. Furthermore, direct access to the riverside footpath is located just across the road, perfect for exploring the surrounding countryside.

SITUATION

Winchcombe is an ancient Saxon town, beautifully situated on the famous Cotswold Way, just 7 miles north-east of Cheltenham. This location offers excellent connectivity (approx. 2hrs to London Paddington by train from Cheltenham), with Broadway 8 miles and Gloucester 16 miles away.

Nestled within the Cotswolds National Landscape (formerly the AONB), the town features many listed properties. The thriving community provides an excellent range of amenities, including independent shops, supermarkets, pubs, restaurants, doctors/dental surgeries, and a library, plus a primary and a secondary school.

A stone's throw from the town centre lies the magnificent Sudeley Castle, a historic Tudor jewel and the final resting place of Queen Katherine Parr. Residents and visitors alike enjoy a year-round calendar of prestigious events ranging from the magical 'Spectacle of Light' in winter to summer outdoor theatre and artisan festivals.

The town's cultural and recreational life is further enhanced by the Isbourne Arts Centre, a vibrant venue for music, drama, and community events; and the Winchcombe Park, which offers a Multi-Use Games Area (MUGA), a skate park, an outdoor gym, and picnic areas, strengthening the local community spirit.
