Garden

The gardens are truly exceptional, extending to approximately one acre and offering a breathtaking blend of natural beauty and gentle landscaping. Surrounded by mature trees and established planting, the outside space feels wonderfully private and immersed in nature, with birdsong and seasonal colour creating an ever-changing backdrop. Sweeping lawn areas flow effortlessly through the grounds, interspersed with thoughtfully positioned patio terraces that invite outdoor living from dawn to dusk — perfect for quiet reflection, entertaining, or simply soaking up the tranquillity. This is a garden designed to be experienced rather than just admired, offering a rare sense of space, freedom and connection to the countryside.

Location

The bungalow sits in a rural position on the border of the popular Marshwood Vale, close to the beautiful seaside town of Lyme Regis with easy access to Charmouth, Bridport and the historic market town of Axminster. The whole area is designated as an AONB near the spectacular Dorset coast, famed for its UNESCO World Heritage Site status, and is an ideal location for dog walking, cycling, horse riding and other countryside pursuits. There is a mainline station at Axminster with hourly services to London Waterloo, providing excellent rail and road links.

Driveway And Parking

Approached via a large driveway, the property enjoys an impressive and practical arrival, with ample off-road parking for multiple vehicles leading to a detached double garage. Whether accommodating family life, visiting guests, or storage for outdoor pursuits, the driveway and garage space provide both convenience and flexibility. The generous parking arrangements enhance the feeling of privacy and exclusivity, while the garage offers secure storage or potential for workshop use, further complementing the property's well-balanced blend of functionality and rural charm.
