DESCRIPTION

Stags are delighted to bring to the market this contemporary styled, semi detached property in the popular village of Budock Water on the outskirts of Falmouth. Situated at the end of a cul-de-sac, this versatile family property offers three/ four bedrooms and sits in an elevated position commanding wonderful views over the surrounding countryside and down towards the sea in the distance. The property has been beautifully styled by the current vendors with a stylish mat grey and cream kitchen with solid wooden worksurfaces, stylish white contemporary bathroom suite with separate wc, neutral decor and laminate flooring throughout to give the property a spacious, clean and stylish ambiance.

Accommodation comprises; There is a raised entrance with pleasant seating area to take in the surrounding countryside, access is via steps to the entrance hall, open plan 'L' shaped lounge/dining area incorporating a feature log burner with beautifully exposed timber lintel over, the kitchen flows off this space, bathroom with separate WC, garden to the rear, oversized garage underneath the property with inspection pit plus off street parking and a separately accessed guest room/ studio or workroom with en-suite shower room/ wc facilities to the ground floor.

OUTSIDE

To the front is a fern garden laid to loose chipped bark contained by rockery dwarf walls. The property enjoys private off street parking to the immediate front on the driveway which in turn leads to the garage, providing further parking. There is a side access passage which leads around to the rear garden

To the rear there is an immediate decked patio area leading directly off the kitchen making for a wonderful outside space for barbequing, relaxing or alfresco dining, furthermore there is a raised and relatively level lawn with rear traditional Cornish boundary which has an abundance of native fauna and flora. The property enjoys easy and clear side access where a greenhouse, timber garden tool shed and the LPG bottles.

SITUATION

The property is located at the end of a cul-de-sac in the highly desirable village of Budock Water, which is twixed between the larger towns of Falmouth and Penryn. The village is thriving with a public house and shop and is located approximately two miles from Falmouth. Budock Water is surrounded by wonderful countryside and is surrounded by the picturesque coastline of the South Cornish Coast, with gems such as Maenporth Beach and the The National Trust's Trebah and Glendurgan Gardens accessible.

Branch line trains from Penryn and Falmouth connect to the mainline Paddington to Penzance line at Truro and the village is serviced by a regular bus service.

The historic port of Falmouth, renowned for the sailing waters of the Carrick Roads and its sandy south-facing beaches, offers a wealth of restaurants, bars, shops, and galleries. Additionally, Falmouth boasts the world's third deepest natural harbour, adding to its rich maritime heritage.
