SITUATION

Barrigger is an attractive and highly regarded rural village, ideally positioned just a few miles from Cornwall's stunning north coast. Nestled between Hayle and Camborne, the village enjoys a peaceful countryside setting while remaining conveniently close to larger neighbouring towns and coastal destinations.

The name Barrigger is believed to derive from the French term "Beau Repere", meaning "beautiful resting place," dating back to the 1300s — a fitting description for this charming and tranquil location. The village has retained a strong sense of community and character, making it particularly appealing to families and those seeking a quieter pace of life.

Local amenities within Barrigger include a well-regarded primary school and an active village hall, which hosts a variety of community events and activities throughout the year. These facilities contribute to the village's welcoming and close-knit atmosphere.

Further services and amenities are available in nearby Camborne, approximately two miles to the north east. Camborne offers a broader range of shopping, educational, and leisure facilities, along with a mainline railway station providing direct links to London Paddington. The town also benefits from convenient access to the A30, ensuring excellent road connections across Cornwall and beyond.

In addition, the magnificent sandy beaches and dramatic coastline of Cornwall's north coast are just a short drive away, offering superb opportunities for surfing, coastal walks, and enjoying the area's outstanding natural beauty.
