SITUATION

Ivy Cottage is set in the picturesque Teign Valley, known for its unspoilt countryside, rolling farmland and easy access to Dartmoor National Park. Close to the popular village of Dunsford, residents benefit from a primary school, parish church, village hall, traditional pub and a variety of community activities. The cathedral city of Exeter, around 8 miles east, offers extensive shopping, dining, cultural and educational amenities, mainline rail links to London, access to the M5 and Exeter Airport. With Dartmoor's moorland, woodland walks and riding trails nearby, and the South Devon coast within easy reach, Ivy Cottage combines the best of Devon's rural lifestyle with excellent connectivity.

DESCRIPTION

Dating back around 400 years, Ivy Cottage is a beautifully restored cob and thatch home that has been comprehensively renovated to combine period charm with modern comfort. Recent improvements include complete rethatching in 2024, double glazing throughout, handmade oak internal doors, fully lined chimneys, solar-assisted hot water, complete rewiring, new ceilings and extensive timber treatment works. Great care has been taken to preserve the cottage's original character while enhancing it for contemporary living.

ACCOMMODATION

Entered through the charming cottage garden, Ivy Cottage immediately impresses with its exceptional presentation and period character. The welcoming dining room features stone slab flooring with electric underfloor heating and leads to a versatile ground-floor bedroom, currently used as a home office. The cosy sitting room centres around a magnificent inglenook fireplace with a gas wood-burning stove and original bread oven, overlooking the front garden and adjoining a useful studio space ideal for home working, hobbies or workshop. At the heart of the home is a bespoke kitchen with marble worktops, integrated Bosch appliances and an Everhot range cooker, offering ample storage and workspace, with a stable door opening to the rear parking area. Upstairs are two generous double bedrooms and a beautifully finished family bathroom.

GARDEN AND PARKING

The generous landscaped country cottage style gardens extends to 1/4 acre, are arranged over three attractive levels and are a delight. Ample parking for two vehicles completes this delightful village home.

SERVICES

Utilities: Mains electricity, and water
