Beautifully converted former coach house, offered to the market with no onward chain and positioned within a charming mews-style setting on Worle hillside - 123E Church Road is a pretty stone-built home, converted in 2020 to create a stylish and versatile property with a thoughtful layout arranged over two floors. The accommodation is accessed via a spacious entrance hall, immediately giving a sense of the character and practicality found throughout. To the rear, the open plan kitchen dining room forms the heart of the home and enjoys a pleasant outlook over the courtyard garden. The kitchen is fitted with a range of well-appointed wall and base cabinets with timber work surfaces over, together with a selection of integrated appliances, opening naturally into the dining area. This bright and airy dual-aspect space benefits from bi-fold doors leading directly to the rear courtyard garden, creating a lovely connection between inside and out. The dining area is currently arranged as a lounge, showing the flexibility of the layout. A separate sitting room provides a cosy additional reception space, ideal for sitting back and relaxing. The ground floor also includes a double bedroom and separate shower room with WC, allowing genuine single-level living if required. To the first floor, there are two further double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefitting from en-suite facilities. A sizeable landing provides a useful study or home office area, ideal for those needing a quiet space to work from home.

Externally, the property enjoys a private enclosed courtyard garden, laid to flagstones for ease of maintenance and enclosed by attractive stone walling. Raised planters add interest and provide space for planting, helping to soften the courtyard while keeping the garden practical and manageable. Bi-fold doors from the open plan living space make this a natural extension of the home during the warmer months, ideal for outdoor seating, summer dining or a quiet morning coffee. To the side of the property, tandem off-street parking is provided for two vehicles, a particularly valuable feature within this tucked-away setting.

Church Road is conveniently situated on Worle hillside, well placed for access to local amenities, public transport and the wider road network. Worle High Street offers a range of everyday shops, cafes and services, while further facilities can be found in nearby Weston-super-Mare. The area is also well served by transport links, with Worle railway station providing mainline connections and the M5 motorway within easy reach for commuters. With its attractive stone elevations, flexible three-bedroom layout, ground floor bedroom and shower room, courtyard garden and two parking spaces, 123E Church Road represents a rare opportunity to acquire a characterful yet modern home in a convenient Worle hillside setting.
