THE PROPERTY

This charming property is full of character, enjoys a slightly elevated position and is surrounded by mature gardens to its front and back. The ground floor hallway leads to a 17' reception room, separated into distinct living and dining spaces with a log burner providing homely and additional warmth in the winter months. A spiral staircase from the living area leads to the larger of the 3 bedrooms. The Kitchen is well equipped and fitted with a country style to compliment the age of the house. The bathroom has been updated in the past and has natural light and ventilation and is a good size too. Stairs from the hall provide access to the 2 bedrooms upstairs ; one having fitted wardrobes with lovely views over the trees outside.

THE GROUNDS

The gardens are a real feature being very well stocked with lots of colour ; the front has wide steps with side access to a courtyard space behind the house with further steps to a raised terrace and from this lightly elevated position, calming views over the abundance of greenery and trees. There is a parking space at the bottom of the stepped access and there's more casual parking a few yards away from the house.
