Location

KEY HIGHLIGHTS - The Hollies Farm Shop: Located on Northwich Road (WA4 4PG), this renowned family-run business, operating since 1959 features a premium farm shop, an on-site butchery, and a gift area. Café Hollies: Found within The Hollies, the café serves breakfast and lunch daily, with options to dine indoors or out on the patio. Local Dining: The area is surrounded by highly rated traditional country pubs and eateries, such as The Stretton Fox and The Partridge. History: The village still retains historical structures, most notably Stretton Hall, which dates back to the mid 1600s

Surrounded by Cheshire countryside, Stretton is a picturesque village located south of Warrington Town Centre. The name Stretton derives from the Old English term settlement on a Roman road as it sits around what was once a key route passing through the area to Wilderspool. In the past, the village was known as a prime agricultural area and is brimming with history; home to cottages, school houses and a parish church dating back to the 19th Century. Nowadays there is a sports pavilion, hotel and a selection of outstanding schools. Stretton also benefits from excellent transport links and a great range of amenities including a nursery, post office and a range of cosy pubs. Residents also have plenty of scenic walking routes on the doorstep.

Accommodation

Enjoying panoramic views across the surrounding countryside, this beautifully extended and comprehensively refurbished detached family home offers an exceptional blend of character, quality and contemporary open plan living. Thoughtfully redesigned throughout, the property provides spacious and versatile accommodation ideal for modern family life.

This charming detached house has been the subject of significant renovations, extensions and re-modelling over the years including but not limited to the following: a two storey extension to the side resulting in two bedrooms, one of which featuring a vaulted ceiling, dining room, utility and WC., full width rear extension providing a superb open-plan kitchen and family / recreation room complete with bi-folding doors, replacement kitchen and bathroom, carpets and re-decoration. In conclusion, the property has been architecturally re-modelled to suit family living.

Presented over two storeys, this attractive rendered detached home offers much improved accommodation, in addition to an enhanced layout. Set back from the road, positioned behind a particularly spacious gravelled driveway which could evolve into an 'In and Out' subject to the necessary permissions. Upon arrival you are welcoming by a traditional style oak pillared porch sat on a brick base with 'Indian' stone and courtesy lighting which in turn leads through to the entrance hall via a timber front door. From the hall you are introduced to the open-plan dining kitchen, dining room and family/recreation room which not only offers a large versatile space but is the heartbeat of the house. In addition, there are two further reception rooms, namely the lounge and study, utility with WC. Upstairs, there is the main bedroom with a further room off which is plumbed for an en-suite, however, is currently a dressing room, three further bedrooms and the main family bathroom. Generous gardens and off road parking.
