Occupying a desirable end-of-terrace position, the property benefits from an abundance of natural light and a greater sense of privacy. The well-proportioned accommodation has been thoughtfully designed for contemporary family life, featuring a welcoming entrance hall, a spacious living area, and a stylish kitchen/dining room ideal for both everyday living and entertaining.

Upstairs, there are three generously sized bedrooms, including a principal bedroom, complemented by a well-appointed family bathroom. Throughout, the home is presented in excellent condition, making it ready to move straight into.

Outside, the property enjoys a private rear garden, perfect for relaxing or al fresco dining, while the end-of-terrace position provides additional outdoor space and an attractive outlook. Parking is conveniently available within the development.

Cedar Chase is an award-winning Span design, designed by Eric Lyons, who was the principal architect for Span housing. This small private development forms part of the Taplow Conservation area. Renowned for its peaceful surroundings and attractive landscaping, there are 5 acres of communal gardens which are private and for the 24 houses use only. Residents benefit from a tranquil environment while remaining within easy reach of Taplow Station (Elizabeth Line), excellent road connections via the M4 and M40, and a range of local amenities, schools, and picturesque walks along the River Thames and nearby countryside.
