what the owners will miss

"We'll miss the cosy nights in with the fire on and the lovely cottage feel the house has, especially during the colder months. The views across Bristol are something special — from fireworks nights and New Year's celebrations to watching the hot air balloons drift past, particularly during the Balloon Fiesta. Having Magpie Bottom and Conham River nature reserves just a short walk away has been a real joy, offering peaceful countryside walks right on our doorstep."

just a thought...
