The Seller's View

“Ranleigh Avenue was Mum’s home for many years and it was a place that suited her extremely well. She particularly appreciated the peace and quiet of the cul-de-sac, while still having shops, local amenities and everything she needed within easy reach.

The bungalow was a comfortable and manageable home, with all the accommodation on one level and a garden she could enjoy. It gave her the independence of a detached home without being too large to look after.

As a family, we have many memories connected with the house and know how much Mum enjoyed living here. It now offers the next owner a wonderful opportunity to bring fresh ideas, modernise the property and make it their own.”
