Accommodation

Enjoying a central village location and benefitting from everything associated with such a position. Surprisingly well proportioned, this four storey, extended bay fronted village terrace oozes charm and character. During our clients' tenure, there has been many cosmetic improvements including redecoration, panelling, fitted furniture, repurposing of the cellar conversion into a cinema room and landscaping.

Presented over four storeys,, the accommodation is accessed through an original style front door into a vestibule with 'Karndean' flooring and panelling which in turns leads to the entrance hall that boasts many features including ceiling corbels, coving, panelling and a period reflective radiator. lounge decorated in bold colours combined with a feature fireplace and bay window with shutters, separate dining room with feature fireplace set against a feature wall, extended family room with 'Velux' windows opening into the dining kitchen which is fitted with a range of high gloss units and 'Rangemaster' cooker, utility and WC. The basement includes a cinema room conversion with media wall and mood lighting. The first floor offers a generous landing with panelled walls, main bedroom with panelled feature wall and shutters, second bedroom with an original cupboard, inner lobby, third bedroom again with feature wall and fitted furniture all complete with a period reflective four piece bathroom suite. The second floor offers a landing and a particularly large fourth bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe. Externally, there are landscaped gardens including artificial turf bordered with 'York' stone flagging, courtyard ideal for Al-Fresco' dining.
