There are renovated properties and then there are properties where virtually every detail has been reconsidered, renewed and finished from the ground up. This superb two-bedroom bungalow on a good sized plot in the sought-after location of Great Sutton most certainly falls into the latter category.

The current owner has undertaken an extensive transformation, creating a home that combines the ease of single-storey living with the finish, comfort and contemporary feel of a brand-new property. From the redesign and replastering to the complete rewire, new central heating system and new combi boiler, this is far more than a cosmetic makeover. The hard work has been done, the expense has been incurred and the result is a beautifully presented home ready for its next owner to simply turn the key and start living.

Step inside and the quality of the renovation immediately becomes apparent. Fresh, crisp interiors and an intelligently considered layout create a wonderful sense of light and space, while the finish throughout gives the property that unmistakable "new home" feeling without sacrificing the character, privacy and generous outside space of an established bungalow.

At the heart of the home is the stunning brand-new fitted kitchen, finished with timeless Shaker-style cabinetry, beautiful work surfaces and a comprehensive range of integrated appliances. Everything has been thought of, including integrated ovens, hob, dishwasher, washing machine and fridge freezer. Stylish, practical and beautifully executed, it is a kitchen designed to look fabulous while standing up effortlessly to everyday life.

The accommodation then flows into a particularly generous living room, with a cosy log burner and ample space for substantial sofas and furniture. This in turn connects with a lovely garden room with roof lantern, creating an additional light-filled living space with views towards the garden and sundeck area. Whether imagined as a peaceful morning coffee spot, a reading room, dining area or somewhere to sit with a glass of wine as the evening draws in, it adds another wonderfully usable dimension to the home.

The bungalow offers two genuine double bedrooms with the potential to extend further. The impressive principal bedroom boasts patio doors to the large garden with built in fitted wardrobes. The other bedroom would be equally at home as a guest bedroom, sophisticated home office or hobby room, giving the property excellent flexibility for downsizers, professionals and those wanting space for visiting family.

Completing the internal accommodation is the beautifully appointed new shower room, fitted with a generous double shower enclosure, wash basin and WC. Like the rest of the property, it has been completely renewed and finished to a high standard, resulting in a fresh, contemporary space that feels every bit as special as the rooms around it.

And the appeal certainly doesn't stop at the front door. Outside, the property enjoys private wraparound gardens with a variety of shrubs and plants, providing a delightful sense of space and separation together with a choice of different seating areas. Rather than having just one place to enjoy the garden, there are various spots in which to follow the sun, find some shade, entertain friends or simply enjoy a quiet cup of coffee outdoors. For anyone who values their outside space, this is a real highlight.

Parking is equally well catered for, with a private driveway providing space for two cars, while the double garage with electric roller shutter door offers superb additional parking, storage or workshop potential. What makes this bungalow particularly compelling, however, is the sheer completeness of what has been achieved.

Buying an older property and bringing it to this standard can mean months of disruption, endless decisions, escalating costs and tradespeople coming and going. Here, somebody else has already taken care of it all. In short, this is an established bungalow offering the rare luxury of feeling brand new. For buyers looking for an immaculate, turn-key home in Great Sutton, with generous accommodation, two double bedrooms, superb living space, wraparound gardens, excellent parking and a substantial garage, this is a property that deserves to sit right at the top of the viewing list.

Nothing to renovate. Nothing to replace. Nothing to compromise on. Just move in and enjoy the home from day one.
