DESCRIPTION

A beautifully presented and attractive stone three bedroom Cornish cottage, situated within the popular hamlet of Tregoodwell on the outskirts of Camelford. The property retains a wealth of character features and enjoys generous, well established gardens, together with the considerable benefit of no onward chain.

ACCOMMODATION

The ground floor is approached via an entrance hall with attractive timber flooring and useful storage. The sitting room is a light and welcoming space, featuring a beamed ceiling, window seat and an open fireplace with granite lintel and slate hearth.

To the other side of the property is the impressive dual aspect kitchen/dining room, which provides an excellent everyday living and entertaining space. The kitchen is fitted with a good range of wall and base units, integrated double oven, hob, dishwasher and fridge. A granite fireplace houses a woodburning stove, whilst further character is provided by the exposed timber flooring and former bread oven.

A useful ground floor cloakroom/utility room completes the ground floor, with plumbing and space for washing and drying appliances together with the oil fired boiler.

On the first floor are three double bedrooms, two of which enjoy attractive views over Tregoodwell and the surrounding countryside, while the third overlooks the pretty rear garden. The principal bedroom benefits from an en-suite shower room, whilst the spacious family bathroom has a bath with shower over.

OUTSIDE

Outside, the property is complemented by particularly attractive and generous gardens. The enclosed front garden is laid principally to lawn and bordered by mature planting, with a slate path leading to the entrance.

The rear garden is a real feature of the property, comprising a lower lawned area with summerhouse and gated side access, with steps leading to a further substantial upper garden. This is enclosed by fencing and walls and is well stocked with mature trees, shrubs and planting, creating a peaceful and private setting.
