About the property

A particularly large distinctive detached four bedroom family house, originally built circa 1920, extended greatly in the years following, and occupying a magnificent level enclosed garden plot. This substantial home is in need of modernisation, but offers a great opportunity to a growing family with the exceptional living space provided on the ground floor, and the extensive gardens and gated driveway. Approached by double gates leading into a double width private tarmac drive which follows the depth of the plot, and leads directly to a detached substantial garage (28'0 x 15'8). There are extensive lawns to both the front and rear of the property and the entire garden is walled and fenced affording maximum privacy and security. The property includes gas heating with panel radiators (Boiler circa 2013), hardwood effect PVC double glazed windows, and mains electricity, gas, water and drainage, The capacious and versatile ground floor living space comprises an entrance hall inset with a spindle balustrade stair case, a formal dining room approached by double doors and open plan to a large lounge (17'10 x 12'0), a 20 FT sitting room, a separate snug/study and a spacious 21 FT family room. The L shaped kitchen and breakfast room is a generous (21'6 x 18'4), equipped with integrated appliances and PVC double glazed french doors which open onto the level rear gardens, whilst a separate utility room and down stairs cloak room is located adjacent.
