A charming four bedroom family house located in the Wimbledon Park Primary school catchment, with large garden, garage and potential to extend the ground floor (subject to planning).

This delightful home is well-presented throughout with a wealth of character. The ground floor comprises two reception rooms with large cellar below. The first floor comprises three bedroom and a bathroom, with the master bedroom and second bathroom in the converted loft, benefiting from an outlook across green allotments.

The superb garden has an open aspect to the south with rear access. The garage has the option to be extended into a home office/gym.

Brooklands Avenue is a highly desirable tree-lined street, within close proximity of both Southfields and Earlsfield.
