The accommodation retains much of its traditional character and comprises an entrance hall leading to two reception rooms, offering flexible living and dining spaces. The kitchen is positioned to the rear of the property and provides access to the garden, with scope for improvement and potential reconfiguration. There are two well-proportioned double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside, the property benefits from a good size rear garden, offering ample space for outdoor entertaining, gardening or future landscaping. Residents' parking is available on the road, adding further convenience.

The location is a particular highlight, with Maidenhead town centre and the Elizabeth Line station just a short walk away, providing excellent shopping, dining and transport links. A number of well-regarded local schools are also within easy reach, making the property appealing to a wide range of purchasers.

Combining period charm, a highly sought-after central location and significant potential for improvement, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a character cottage and add value in one of Maidenhead's most convenient locations.
