SITUATION

Stoneybrook Rise is a modern development of just three detached homes, built around 2103, tucked behind the fire station and close to the garage/convenience store and primary school. The town offers a traditional range of amenities including supermarket, shops, art gallery and cafe, together with post office and garage/supermarket. There are two public houses, health centre, veterinary surgery and community market. There are various sporting facilities together with an excellent modern community hall. Whilst within easy walking distance is the local play and skate park. The larger town of Okehampton has an excellent range of shops and services, three supermarkets including a Waitrose and a range of locally and nationally owned shops and businesses. From Okehampton there is a popular train station which connects to Exeter and beyond, there is also direct access to the A30 dual carriageway providing a direct link west into Cornwall or east to the cathedral and university city of Exeter with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections. The countryside around Hatherleigh is well known for its recreational and sporting facilities with fishing on the Torridge and walking and riding on the Tarka Trail and Granite Way. The North and South coasts of Devon and Cornwall are easily accessible with delightful beaches and attractive coastal scenery.

DESCRIPTION

The property is one of three detached homes on this small development. The house benefits from double glazing and an air source heat pump system with underfloor heating throughout. In addition, the property has rain water harvesting supplementing the supply for WC's and clothes washing, saving on water costs. The ground floor offers a hallway, which serves a cloakroom and a spacious open plan kitchen/living/dining room with French doors to the garden. The first floor offers four bedrooms (one with en suite) and a family bathroom. Further benefits include a garage, an allocated parking space and gardens.
